God's version of love?

Good is

If we took these verses seriously and modelled the kind of love God demonstrated and desires, how could this make a difference in:

how you view yourself?

your family?

your school?

your communities?

4. When do you find it difficult to love people in your life?

SAMPLE

God does not love us because we are lovely or loving. He loves us because He is love. His love for us is based on His character, not our character. So His love for us will not change if we change. Indeed He started loving us when we were His enemies.
